Personal information

A 25 year old graduate living in South London. I'm a natural problem solver and find challenging situations exciting. Working with the Adobe creative suite for design aspects / prototypes and using HTML5, CSS3, SASS and javaScript I create aesthetically pleasing responsive websites from the ground up and expand on existing websites. I'm friendly and personable and I get on with people from all walks of life. Finally I take pride in working hard and being good at whatever I do.
